Schedule "9"

To

By-Law No. 5545-04

Relating to Pawnbrokers

Whereas, the Council of The Corporation of the Town of Whitby considers it desirable to licence and impose conditions on pawnbrokers for the purpose of consumer protection;

Now therefore, the Council of The Corporation of the Town of Whitby enacts as follows:

General

- A. No person shall carry on the business of a pawnbroker without having first obtained a licence from the Town to do so, which licence shall be called a Pawnbroker's Licence, and paying the licence fee required for a Pawnbroker's Licence as set out in the Fees and Charges By-law, as amended from time to time.
- B. Every pawnbroker licensed by the Town shall comply with the following provisions contained in this Schedule "9".

Definitions

1 In addition to the definitions provided for in this by-law, the following words in this Schedule "9" shall have the following meanings:

"pawner" means a person who delivers an article for pawn to a pawnbroker;

"pledge" means an article pawned with a pawnbroker; and

"shop" includes any place where the business of a pawnbroker is carried on.

Licences

2 (1) Further to Section A above, no person shall carry on the business of a pawnbroker without a licence issued by the Town in which the person carries on or proposes to carry on business or without renewing the licence annually, but no licence shall be issued or renewed unless under the authority of a by-law of the Town.

Application for renewal

3 (1) No application for a licence or renewal of a licence to carry on the business of a pawnbroker shall be refused until after the applicant has been afforded a hearing by the licence issuing authority.

Continuation of licence pending renewal

(2) Where, within the time prescribed therefor or, if no time is prescribed, prior to the expiry of the licence, the holder of a licence to carry on the business of a pawnbroker has applied for renewal and paid the prescribed fee, the licence shall be deemed to continue,

- a) until the renewal is granted; or
- b) until the application has been finally determined by the licence issuing authority or, where there is an appeal from the decision of the licence issuing authority, until the last day for launching an appeal or such later date as may be fixed by the body to whom the appeal may be taken.

Licence to cover only one shop

4 No person shall, by virtue of one licence, carry on business as a pawnbroker in more than one shop.

Licence to partners

5 Where two or more persons carry on business as pawnbrokers in partnership in the same shop, only one licence is necessary.

Security

6 Every pawnbroker shall give to the Town security to the satisfaction of the Town's Treasurer in the sum of $2,000 for the due observance by the pawnbroker of this Schedule.

Business sign and notice of rights, rates and charges

7 A pawnbroker shall,

- a) keep exhibited in large, legible characters on a sign over the front door of his, her or its shop, the pawnbroker's name and the word "Pawnbroker" or the words "Prêteur sur gages"; and
- b) keep displayed conspicuously in the shop a notice in large, legible characters so as to be visible to persons pawning articles or redeeming pledges, showing,
 - (i) rights of redemption of pledges,
 - (ii) rates of interest authorized by law to be taken by pawnbrokers for sums lent, and
 - (iii) maximum charges authorized by this by-law.

Restrictions upon pawnbrokers

8 A pawnbroker shall not,

- a) purchase any article or receive or take any article in pawn from any person who appears to the pawnbroker to be under the age of eighteen years or to be under the influence of alcohol or drugs;
- b) purchase or take in pawn a pawnticket issued by himself or herself or any other pawnbroker;
- c) carry on business as a pawnbroker on Sunday, Good Friday, Christmas Day or any day appointed by proclamation of the Governor General or the Lieutenant Governor as a public holiday, or on any other day before 8 o'clock in the morning or after 8 o'clock in the evening;
- d) purchase, sell or otherwise deal with any pledge while in pawn to the pawnbroker, except in accordance with this Schedule;
- e) suffer any pledge while in pawn to the pawnbroker to be redeemed with a view to the pawnbroker's purchasing it;
- f) make any contract or agreement with any person pawning or offering to pawn any article, or with the owner thereof, for the purchase, sale or disposition thereof, within the time of redemption;
- g) take in pawn any cross, medal, insignia or other decoration granted by or with the approval of Her Majesty the Queen or the Crown; or
- h) melt any gold, silver, platinum or other precious metal that was pawned with the pawnbroker, that was not redeemed, and that has become the pawnbroker's absolute property under this Schedule, unless authorized so to do by the Council of the Town.

Pawnbroker's book

9 (1) Every pawnbroker who takes an article in pawn shall, before any money is lent thereon, enter in a book to be kept for that purpose,

- a) the day, month and year in which the pledge was taken;
- b) the full name, address and a description of the person delivering the article for pawn reasonably sufficient to identify such person, including sex, and estimated age, height, complexion and full particulars of identification if produced and, where the person who delivers the article for pawn states that he or she is the agent of its owner for the purpose of pawning it, the name and address of the owner;
- c) a description of the pledge reasonably sufficient to identify it; and
- d) the sum lent on the pledge.

Where no identification

(2) Where a person tendering an article for pawn refuses or is unable to produce any identification, the pawnbroker shall enter in the book a note thereof, which shall be deemed to constitute compliance with the identification requirements of clause (1) (b).

Entries to be numbered consecutively

(3) The entries shall be numbered in the book consecutively in the order in which the articles are pawned.

Pawnticket

10 At the time of taking an article in pawn, the pawnbroker shall give the pawner a pawnticket containing,

- a) the pawnbroker's name and business address;
- b) the name of the pawner;
- c) the day, month and year in which the pledge was taken in pawn;
- d) the number of the entry of the pledge in the pawnbroker's book;
- e) a description of the pledge;
- f) the sum lent on the pledge;
- g) the rate of interest charged for the sum lent;
- h) the charge for the pawnticket; and
- i) the charge for storage, if any.

Where article suspected to have been stolen

11 Where a pawnbroker has reasonable cause to suspect that an article offered to the pawnbroker has been stolen or otherwise unlawfully obtained, the pawnbroker shall forthwith report the matter to a member of the police force of the Town in which the pawnbroker carries on business.

Alphabetical list of pawners

12 Every pawnbroker shall keep up to date during each year a list, arranged alphabetically, of the names of the persons who have pawned articles with the pawnbroker, and each such list shall be kept for not less than one year after the end of the year during which it was compiled.

Daily report to police

13 (1) Every pawnbroker shall before noon of every business day make a report either for the chief of police or for such other person as is designated by by-law of the Council of the Town.

Contents

(2) Such reports shall contain, in respect of every transaction made on the next preceding business day, all the information required under section 9 to be entered in the pawnbroker's book.

Form

(3) Such reports may be on forms to be furnished by the Town or may be copies of the pawnbroker's book reproduced by any means whatsoever so long as the copy is legible.

Identification of pledge

14 Each pledge shall be identified by a number that corresponds with the number of the pawnticket and the entry of the transaction in the pawnbroker's book, and, when the pledge is redeemed, the pawnbroker shall record the amount of interest taken and of all other charges and shall keep the record for not less than one year after redemption.

Inspection by police

15 Every police officer shall at all times be given access to and may inspect a pawnbroker's books, papers and pledges, and when so engaged may have with him or her such other persons as he or she considers advisable.

Production of ticket

16 Except as hereinafter provided, a pawnbroker is not bound to deliver a pledge until the pawnticket for it is produced and delivered to the pawnbroker.

Rights of holder of ticket

17 The holder for the time being of a pawnticket shall, as between the pawner and the pawnbroker, be presumed to be the person entitled to redeem the pledge, and, subject to this Schedule, the pawnbroker shall accordingly, on payment of the sum lent, lawful interest and charges, deliver the pledge to the person producing the pawnticket.

Pawnticket may be non-transferable

18 Despite section 17, where a pawnbroker and a pawner agree that the pawnticket shall not be transferable and such condition is clearly shown upon the pawnticket, the pawner only may redeem the pledge.

Liability of pawnbroker in case of fire

19 (1) Where a pledge is destroyed or damaged by or in consequence of fire, lightning or tempest or any additional peril defined in a standard fire insurance additional perils supplemental contract, the pawnbroker nevertheless is liable, on application within the period during which the pledge would have been redeemable, to pay the value of the pledge after deducting the sum lent, lawful interest and charges, such value to be the sum lent, lawful interest and charges and 25 per cent on the sum lent.

Insurable interest

(2) A pawnbroker has an insurable interest in the pledge to the extent of the value so estimated.

Right of redemption where sum lent $15 or less

20 Where the sum lent upon a pledge is $15 or less, it may be redeemed at any time within one year after the day on which it was pawned by tendering to the pawnbroker the pawnticket, the sum borrowed and the lawful interest and charges, and, if it is not so redeemed, it becomes the pawnbroker's absolute property.

Where sum lent is more than $15 and not more than $30

21 (1) Where the sum lent upon a pledge is more than $15 but not more than $30, the pawnbroker may at any time after it has been in pawn for at least one year send to the pawner by first-class prepaid mail to the address shown in the pawnbroker's book to be the address of the pawner a notice identifying the transaction and stating that, unless the pledge is redeemed within the fifteen days next after the day of mailing the notice, it becomes the pawnbroker's absolute property.

Idem

(2) Any such pledge may be redeemed at any time within the fifteen days next after the day of mailing the notice by tendering to the pawnbroker the pawnticket, the sum borrowed and the lawful interest and charges, and, if it is not so redeemed, it becomes the pawnbroker's absolute property.

Where sum lent is more than $30: notice by mail and newspaper

22 (1) Where the sum lent upon a pledge is more than $30, the pawnbroker may at any time after it has been in pawn for at least one year send to the pawner by first-class prepaid mail to the address shown by the pawnbroker's book to be the address of the pawner a notice identifying the transaction and stating that, unless the pledge is redeemed within the fifteen days next after the day of mailing the notice, a final notice will be published in a newspaper having general circulation in the Town in which the pawnbroker carries on business identifying the transaction and stating that, unless the pledge is redeemed within the fifteen days next after the day of publication of the notice, it becomes the pawnbroker's absolute property.

Idem

(2) If the pledge is not redeemed within the fifteen days next after the mailing of the first notice mentioned in subsection (1), the pawnbroker may at any time thereafter give the final notice mentioned in that subsection.

Idem

(3) Any such pledge may be redeemed at any time within the fifteen days next after the mailing of the first notice mentioned in subsection (1) or within the fifteen days next after the day of publication of the final notice mentioned in that subsection, as the case may be, by tendering to the pawnbroker the pawnticket, the sum borrowed and the lawful interest and charges, and, if it is not so redeemed, it becomes the pawnbroker's absolute property.

Calculation of 1-year period

23 (1) The one-year period mentioned in sections 20, 21 and 22 commences on the day following the day on which the pledge was put in pawn and ends with the close of business on the 365th day thereafter.

Calculation of 15-day period

(2) The fifteen-day period mentioned in sections 21 and 22 commences on the day following the day on which the notice was mailed or the final notice was published, as the case may be, and ends with the close of business on the fifteenth day thereafter.

Exception

(3) When a period mentioned in subsection (1) or (2) ends on a day on which business is not carried on, the next business day is included in the period.

Affidavit as to notices

24 As soon as a notice mentioned in section 21 or 22 has been sent or published, the pawnbroker shall make or cause to be made an affidavit as to the sending or publication, as the case may be, of the notice, and such affidavit shall be kept by the pawnbroker for at least two years.

Where pledge not given back upon tender of money owing 25 (1) If, during the period that a pledge is redeemable, the pawner tenders to the pawnbroker the pawnticket, the sum lent and the lawful interest and charges and the pawnbroker neglects or refuses without reasonable cause to deliver back the goods so pawned, the pawner may make oath thereof before a justice of the peace, who shall summon such person before him, and shall examine on oath the parties and their witnesses touching the matter.

Tender and consequences of refusal

(2) If tender of the pawnticket with the sum lent and the lawful interest and charges is proved to have been made within such time, then, on payment by the pawner of the total amount owed or, if the pawnbroker refuses to accept such amount on tender before the justice, the justice shall, by order, direct the pledge to be forthwith delivered to the pawner or, if it is not so delivered, shall direct the pawnbroker to make satisfaction for the value thereof to be fixed by the justice in accordance with section 19, and, if the pawnbroker neglects or refuses to deliver up the pledge or to make satisfaction for the value so fixed, the justice shall commit him or her to imprisonment for a period of not more than three months or until he or she delivers up the pledge or makes satisfaction for the value so fixed.

Compensation for depreciation of pledge

26 If a person entitled and offering to redeem a pledge shows to the satisfaction of a justice of the peace that the pledge has become or has been rendered of less value than it was at the time of the pawning thereof by or through the default, neglect or wilful misbehaviour of the pawnbroker, the justice may award a reasonable satisfaction to the owner of the pledge in respect of the damage, and the amount awarded shall be deducted from the amount payable to the pawnbroker or shall be paid by the pawnbroker, as the case requires, in such manner as the justice may direct, and in case of default the pawnbroker is liable to the punishment mentioned in section 25.

Lost pawntickets

27 (1) Any person claiming to be entitled to redeem a pledge but not holding the pawnticket may apply to the pawnbroker for a copy of the pawnticket and a printed form of affidavit, which the pawnbroker shall deliver to the person upon payment of the charge therefor.

Idem

(2) If the claimant proves to the satisfaction of a justice of the peace the right to redeem the pledge and on or before the third day after the day on which the form of affidavit is delivered to the person by the pawnbroker, exclusive of days on which the pawnbroker is prohibited from carrying on business, delivers back to the pawnbroker the affidavit duly sworn and endorsed with a certificate of the justice that such proof has been made, the claimant has, as between the claimant and the pawnbroker, all the rights and remedies that the claimant would have had if the claimant had produced the pawnticket.

Idem

(3) The pawnbroker is not bound to deliver the pledge to any person until the expiration of such three days.

Idem

(4) The pawnbroker shall be indemnified for delivering the pledge, or otherwise acting in conformity with the affidavit and certificate, unless the pawnbroker has notice that the affidavit is fraudulent or false in a material particular.

Maximum charges

28 In addition to the profit on the sum lent, being interest thereon at not more than the lawful rate, a pawnbroker is entitled to make the following charges:

1. For a pawnticket, not more than 20 cents.
2. For storage of a pledge, not more than 10 cents per month per cubic foot or part thereof of storage space taken up by the pledge.
3. For a copy of a pawnticket and printed form of affidavit, not more than 20 cents.

Schedule "11"

To

By-Law No. 5545-04

Relating to Salvage Yards, Salvage Shops, Second-Hand Shops and Second-Hand Dealers

Whereas, the Council of the Corporation of the Town of Whitby considers it desirable to licence and impose conditions on salvage yards, salvage shops, second hand shops and second hand dealers for the purposes of health and safety, nuisance control and consumer protection;

Now therefore, the Council of the Corporation of the Town of Whitby enacts as follows:

1. No person shall carry on the trades, businesses, occupations or callings mentioned in Section 2 of this Schedule without having first obtained a licence from the Corporation to do so, and paying the licence fee required for the class or type of business as set out in the Fees and Charges By-law (Amended by By-law No. 7220-17).
2. A licence shall be taken out by,
 - (a) the owner or keeper of every salvage shop or salvage-yard;
 - (b) the owner or keeper of every second hand shop; and,
 - (c) every second-hand dealer.
1. Notwithstanding any other provision in this Schedule, no licence shall be required by persons engaged,
 - (a) in any of the objects mentioned in Section 2 of this Schedule for patriotic or charitable purposes; or,
 - (b) in the purchase, sale or exchange of articles commonly known and recognized as valuable antiques and works of art, either in their original condition or as renovated, remodelled, repaired or re-manufactured.
2. Any licence issued in accordance with this Schedule may be issued to authorize the licensee to deal in one class only of second hand goods or in more than one class as may be specified in the licence and such licensee shall not be entitled to deal in any class of second hand goods not covered by the licence.

3. No person licenced under this by-law shall purchase, take in exchange, or receive any goods, article or thing from any person who appears to be under the age of 18 years, or from any person under the influence of liquor, or transact any business whatsoever by virtue of the said licence between the hours of eleven o'clock in the evening and seven o'clock on the morning of the following business day, except on Saturday and any day preceding a statutory or other public holiday, when the hour for closing may be extended until twelve o'clock midnight.
4. Notwithstanding any other provision of this by-law no person shall, between the hours of sunset on any day and the hour of sunrise on the next following day, pass from house to house or along any private street or land or public highway in the Town for the purpose of collecting, purchasing or obtaining second hand goods.
5. No person licenced under this by-law shall alter, repair, dispose of, or in any way part with any goods or articles purchased or taken in exchange until after the expiration of fifteen (15) clear days, from the date of purchase, or such exchange, and during these fifteen (15) days the goods or articles so obtained shall remain on the premises in respect to which the licence is issued and be kept in a separate location from goods previously purchased and shall be subject to inspections at any time during business hours by the Chief of Police or any police officer or municipal law enforcement officer, who may be accompanied by such other person as in his judgement may be necessary for the identification of goods reported or suspected of having been stolen.
6. Every licensee who takes an article shall enter into a book to be kept for that purpose,
 - (a) the day, month and year in which the article was taken;
 - (b) a description of the article reasonably sufficient to identify it;
 - (c) the sum paid for the article;
 - (d) the full name, address and a description of the person from who the article was taken sufficient to identify such person, including sex, estimated age, height, complexion and full particulars of a minimum of three pieces of personal identification, one of which shall be a photo identification; and such book shall be open to the inspection of the Chief of Police, a police officer or a municipal law enforcement officer at any time.

7. No salvage yard shall be operated or maintained within the corporate limits of the Town except in accordance with the following regulations:

(a) all salvage yards shall be completely enclosed by a solid fence of 3.6 metres (12 feet) in height. Such fence shall be constructed of new lumber or such other materials as may be approved by the Chief Building Official of the Town of Whitby. Such fence shall be stained or painted and shall at all times be properly maintained and not allowed to fall into a state of disrepair;

(b) no salvage yard shall be located closer than 38.1 metres (125 feet) from the centre line of any public highway, other than a provincial highway, and 137 metres (450 feet) from the centre line of any provincial highway;

(c) no wrecked automobiles or other salvage material shall be located in a salvage yard unless the same is stored or piled in such a fashion that no part of such material shall exceed a height of 3.0 metres (11.8 feet) from the ground; and,

(d) where the owner or keeper of a salvage yard provides and maintains a continuous, unpierced planting strip consisting of,

(i) a minimum of three (3) planting rows of trees;

(ii) a minimum perpendicular width of fifteen (15) trees; and,

(iii) a minimum height of 3.6 metres;

within the outer perimeter of the salvage yard, then for such portion of the continuous, unpierced planting strip, such owner or keeper may, in lieu of the fence required in Clause (a) of this Section, provide and maintain an open or solid fence having a minimum height of 1.2 metres, consisting of such design, material and construction as may be approved by the Chief Building Official of the Town of Whitby.
