1.0 Enabling Legislation

The Municipal Act provides the municipality with the authority to create advisory committees for specific purposes. The Town of Whitby Council has deemed it advisable to establish Whitby Youth Council.

2.0 Mandate and Responsibilities

- 2.1 The mandate of the Whitby Youth Council is to:
 - Provide youth input on the Town of Whitby's Boards and Committees, corporate projects and departmental initiatives;
 - Create an inventory of Youth Services available in the Whitby area;
 - Provide feedback as to what services are not being offered in the Whitby area that are needed;
 - Communicate and coordinate events, services and initiatives available to Youth;
 - Create action plans and prioritize future projects from feedback received; and,
 - Recruit new volunteers for the Youth Council.

3.0 Lead Department

3.1 The Community and Marketing Services Department will be the lead for the Whitby Youth Council. Staff from other departments may attend meetings as required to provide expertise or report on various matters.

4.0 Membership and Composition

4.1 The Whitby Youth Council shall be comprised of Youth Representatives, Adult Representatives and one (1) Member of Council.

- 4.2 There is no limit to the number of Youth and Adult Representatives that can be appointed to the Whitby Youth Council.
- 4.3 Members of the Whitby Youth Council operate by consensus and do not provide recommendations or vote.
